Uncommon · Spellbook (Bundle of 5 Spell Scrolls)

Evocation. A scorched leather tome for burning down whatever the dungeon throws at you.

This tome is a bundle of five spell scrolls, one spell per page. A creature can take an action to cast one of the inscribed spells, using it like a spell scroll. If the spell is on your class's spell list you cast it with no check. Otherwise make a spellcasting ability check (DC 10 + the spell's level); on a failure the page is spent with no effect. Casting a spell uses up that page. When all five pages are spent, the tome becomes mundane.

- Fire Bolt (Cantrip): Ranged spell attack, 1d10 fire
- Burning Hands (1st): 15-ft cone, Dex save, 3d6 fire
- Scorching Ray (2nd): Three rays, spell attack each, 2d6 fire per ray
- Shatter (2nd): 10-ft radius, Con save, 3d8 thunder
- Fireball (3rd): 20-ft radius, Dex save, 8d6 fire

Bag of Holding

GP

Uncommon · Wondrous Item

This bag has an interior space considerably larger than its outside dimensions—roughly 2 feet square and 4 feet deep on the inside. The bag can hold up to 500 pounds, not exceeding a volume of 64 cubic feet. The bag weighs 5 pounds, regardless of its contents.

Retrieving an item from the bag requires a Utilize action.

If the bag is overloaded, pierced, or torn, it is destroyed, and its contents are scattered in the Astral Plane. If the bag is turned inside out, its contents spill forth unharmed, but the bag must be put right before it can be used again. The bag holds enough air for 10 minutes of breathing, divided by the number of breathing creatures inside.

Placing a Bag of Holding inside an extradimensional space created by a Heward's Handy Haversack, Portable Hole, or similar item instantly destroys both items and opens a gate to the Astral Plane. The gate originates where the one item was placed inside the other. Any creature within a 10-foot-radius Sphere centered on the gate is sucked through it to a random location on the Astral Plane. The gate then closes. The gate is one-way and can't be reopened.

Driftglobe

GP

Uncommon · Wondrous Item

This small sphere of thick glass weighs 1 pound. If you are within 60 feet of it, you can command it to emanate light equivalent to that of the Light or Daylight spell (your choice). Once used, the Daylight effect can't be used again until the next dawn.

You can issue another command as a Magic action to make the illuminated globe rise into the air and float no more than 5 feet off the ground. The globe hovers in this way until you or another creature grasps it. If you move more than 60 feet from the hovering globe, it follows you until it is within 60 feet of you. It takes the shortest route to do so. If prevented from moving, the globe sinks gently to the ground and becomes inactive, and its light winks out.
